

PMP6 The unconscious child

	CT3			ST4-6	Assessment Methods	GMP Domains
Knowledge	Seizures including status epilepticus in children Know the differential diagnosis of seizures including febrile convulsions	Hypoglycaemia Understand the causes, presentations, complications, investigations and emergency treatment in the neonatal period and beyond	Diabetic ketoacidosis in children Understand local and national guidelines for the management of diabetic ketoacidosis including the principles of fluid management and insulin therapies	Become more expert in dealing with the unconscious child Understanding inborn error as a cause of hypoglycaemia and its initial investigation in the ED	E, ACAT, AA, C, Mi	1
Skills	Be able to recognise and treat the life-threatening complications Be able to institute appropriate management for status epilepticus (e.g. APLS protocol)	Able to reverse hypoglycaemia	Be able to formulate a likely diagnosis and recognise features of the presentation and complications Be able to recognise the features of cerebral oedema and be able to provide emergency treatment Be able to perform appropriate investigations and act on the results Be able to prescribe fluid, electrolyte and insulin therapy		E, ACAT, AA, C, Mi, D, LS	1, 2

			according to local guidelines
--	--	--	-------------------------------------	--	--	--