

HAP28 Rash – Life-threatening rashes

The trainee will be able to assess the patient with a rash to produce a valid differential diagnosis, investigate appropriately, and formulate and implement a management plan
Knowledge	Assessment Methods	GMP Domains
Know how to recognise and initiate management of the erythrodermas - e.g. maintenance of temp, fluid balance, prophylactic antibiotics	E, Mi, C, ACAT	1
Know the dermatological manifestations of other emergency presentations - meningococcaemia, drugs, anaphylaxis, transfusion reactions	E, Mi, C, ACAT	1
Skills
Be able to recognise these rare presentations	Mi, C	1
Behaviour
Liaise with specialist to ensure optimal care	Mi, C	1,2